Is handicapped seating available? Yes, these seats are clearly labeled on the seating chart.

Do parents need a ticket? Yes, all family, friends and guests must purchase a ticket.

Does the dancer need a ticket? No

All children (except Baby Ballet and Tap/Ballet ages 3-4 students), teens, and adults who are performing in the show will be backstage and do not need a ticket. Students will see the show from a backstage monitor and when possible, from the back of the theatre.

I have a dancer in Baby Ballet and/or Tap/Ballet ages 3-4, do they need a ticket? Yes

Baby Ballet and Tap/Ballet, ages 3-4 dancers are seated in the audience with their parents after performing. You will receive an email with instructions for receiving a complimentary ticket for your little dancer.

I have student/students in multiple shows. Do I need to buy tickets for each show? Yes

An email with instructions for discounted tickets will be emailed to students/families scheduled in multiple shows.

I have a dancer in a Teen class. Do I need to buy tickets for each show? No

All teen/adult students are invited to perform in more than one show to give them extra performing experience, however, parents and friends normally attend only one of their performances. You are welcome to request a standing room pass for an open seat at the back of the theater for any additional show(s) once tickets have been purchased. If you want reserved seating for any family, friend or guest at additional shows a ticket must be purchased.
