

Frequently Asked: Ticket Questions

When can I purchase tickets?

Tickets will go on sale online on Wednesday, May 18th at 6:00AM. Tickets are on sale through midnight on Friday June 17th of the performance weekend. Tickets will be sold at the door, if available.

How do I purchase the tickets?

You will purchase your tickets online from Dance Recital Ticketing, our ticketing provider. A link will be provided in an email, on our website, and Facebook page.

Do I get to choose my seats?

Yes, we offer reserved seating only - you choose available seats from a seating chart online. Choose and purchase your tickets early and carefully; they are non-refundable.

How much do the tickets cost?

- $18 Adults (13 and older)
- $12 Children (12 and under)
- $20 at the door, if available.
- Free (age 3 and under): Guests age three and under, are admitted free but must be seated on someone's lap. If you would like a reserved seat for a guest age three and under, you must purchase a ticket.

When do I pay for the tickets?

You will pay with a credit card at the time of placing your ticket order.

VISA, MASTERCARD, and DISCOVER is accepted. Choose carefully, there will be no refunds. Tickets are transferrable.

When will I receive the tickets?

Immediately following your order placement, you will receive an email confirmation from Dance Recital Ticketing with a link to print your tickets. If you cannot print, please see the office staff at KBDS after you have made your purchase and we will be happy to help.

Is handicapped seating available? Yes, these limited seats are clearly labeled on the seating chart.

Do parents need a ticket? Yes, all family, friends, and guests must purchase a ticket.

Does a Parent Helper need a ticket?

No, Parent Helpers have volunteered to stay backstage the entire show. Parent Helpers will be released to see their dancers from inside the theatre at the time of their performance although not seated with their party.

Parent Helpers will then return to the cafeteria to meet their dancers after their performance is finished.

Does the dancer need a ticket?

No, all children, teens, and adults who are performing in the show will be backstage and do not need a ticket.

Students will see the show from a backstage monitor and when possible, from the back of the theatre. (See exceptions below)

I have a dancer in Baby Ballet or Tap/Ballet ages 3-4, do they need a ticket?

Yes, Baby Ballet and Tap/Ballet age 3-4 dancers are seated in the audience with their parents after performing.

You will receive an email with instructions for a complimentary ticket for your little dancer to be seated with you after their performance.

I have a dancer(s) in multiple shows. Do I need tickets for each show?

Yes, we offer the following ticket purchasing options:

- Everyone pays full ticket price for one (1) show.
- $10 per ticket for adults and children for 2 or more shows.
- All tickets for the entire weekend must be purchased in one transaction in order to receive the $10 ticket price for additional shows.
- Parents/Guardians may request a free Unreserved Seating Pass, for additional shows, if available. An unreserved seat at the back of the theater for any additional show(s) will only be issued after a ticket order has been placed.

If you have any questions, please speak to Rebecca ASAP.